

Antarctica Discovery Cruise

JUST ADDED!

December 9-22, 2025

Just added! Visit Antarctica, the last continent! We go in December because it is their summertime, and space for us JUST opened up! We first fly to Buenos Aires before heading to Ushuaia, the Southernmost port and closest to the tip of Antarctica. We sail across Drake Passage before arriving at the Antarctic Peninsula, around the South Shetland islands on the way to Port Lockroy and Lemaire Channel. The ship is fantastic, with nearly a 1:1 crew-to-guest ratio and amazing culinary experiences, from casual to fine dining. Plus a complimentary expedition parka to keep you warm!

Tour also includes round trip flights, all meals and beverages on board, daily entertainment and lectures and education programs, and all gratuities to all staff and guides!
